A: I'd recommend just downloading the installer and adding the sample files as a VST. They're standalone anyway. This is also helpful: Week in and week out, the Chicago Cubs are consistently strong at the top of this order. While the Cubs are similar in the order in terms of consistency, some of their teammates have been very different to start the year. In the top three spots in the order, the gap between Kris Bryant, Anthony Rizzo, and Addison Russell has been massive at the beginning of the season. Let's look at the top seven top order spots in the order. Like this: Like Loading...Q: php statistics with two classes I have two classes; one containing a list of the subjects (class'subject'). price. I'd like to display this in a page with an index.php where I loop through all of the subjects using `$aSubject = new subject();`

`//All subjects foreach($aSubject as $sSubject){ echo $sSubject->getSubject(); }` I'd like to then display the sum of all of the subjects (using class'subject') in the index.php page which will be at the end of that loop. Would this be feasible in terms of coding, or is it not possible? Thanks in advance.
